

Total Tickets also has a process when you can apply for additional features. If a customer wants a feature that we don't offer in our service, then we will try our best to offer them a substitute or develop a plan to make their request work on our platform.

Depending on the request it may take time to implement the feature.