

Total Tickets offers Google Maps location for your organiser and event page.

When you enter in a location for your organization or event. Google maps will do it's best to find it and show your customers through a window where exactly your organization and event are located.

Example below of what the google maps window in an event page looks like:

Share Event

