

You can check how your online sales are doing through your events by going to the dashboard for each separate event that you are hosting.

You can also check different reports through the report menu you see to the left of the platform like the transaction report and the payment summary

